

Seaside Shuffle

August 2026

The Publisher

Hawkwood Books has been operating since 2006.

We publish a range of genres in paperback with distinctive colour-coded covers. Some titles are also offered in electronic formats.

Though small, our standards are high and we print through a top class company.

Authors come from all walks of life with vastly different approaches to writing.

Hawkwood offers a way in to writers whose works may have been overlooked elsewhere.

Our books are occasionally bought by publishers with greater reach worldwide.

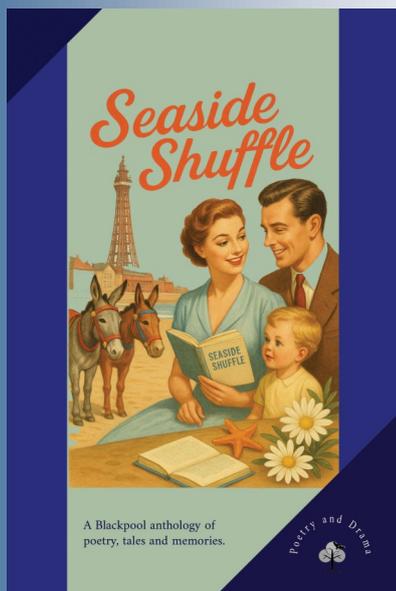

One of our books has been nominated for the Carnegie Medal and other positively reviewed in national media.

We distribute mainly through Gardners and our titles are available through all reputable outlets.

2006 to Mar-26

Title Information Sheet

Tales, poems and memories from residents past and present of Britain's most famous and infamous seaside resort.

Whether it's lost love, donkeys on the beach, gentle nostalgia, serious contemplations or hilarious anecdotes, here is an anthology that will conjure the magic and wonder of Blackpool.

Contributions from over twenty writers and poets to stir the heart, stimulate the mind and entertain.

Author: Various
Genre: Poetry and Prose
ISBN: 978-1-9194745-1-9
RRP: £9.99
Format: Paperback, pp 112

Hive

| Amazon

| Waterstones

www.hawkwoodbooks.co.uk